Palomitas De Paz Sangha Covenant (Short Version)

Steward: Walking mindfully in the footsteps of the Buddha, we come together as a Sangha to breathe, to awaken, to build community, and to give and receive with generous hearts.

Here are our promises to one another:

Recite Together (All Sangha)

With mindfulness and respect, we listen deeply to one another.

With kindness and honesty, we honor confidentiality and speak plainly.

With courage and care, we make space and nurture healing.

With justice and inclusion, we face harm and dismantle oppression.

With gratitude, we come home together to the here and now.
